

Policy 10: Other Parties Involved in Education and Training

MIDAS Group is committed to maintaining the highest standards of quality assurance by establishing quality relationships with their learners and other parties involved in education and training and seeks to build a continuous quality culture within MIDAS Group for all stakeholders.

The objective of this policy is to establish that MIDAS Group is committed in maintaining a 2-way system of communication with its stakeholders and other interested parties within the education and training community.

1. Other parties involved in Education and Training must commit by contractual agreement to comply with the QA policies and procedures of MIDAS Group.
2. MIDAS Group will continuously aim to establish new relationships with other parties involved in Education and Training.
3. MIDAS Group will continue to work in partnership with other educational institutions to establish progression pathways for MIDAS Group learners.
4. MIDAS Group will continue to work in cooperation with local employers to supply quality assured graduates to fill available positions.
5. Other awards, accreditations, collaboration arrangements and partnerships offered, both in Ireland and abroad are organised with reputable bodies and are subject to appropriate internal and external quality assurance procedures.
6. Quality assurance procedures include provisions for due diligence on the reputation, legal status, standing and financial sustainability for any such parties or second providers involved in the provision of related services.
7. MIDAS Group will ensure that Memorandum of Agreements provided to other parties involved in education and training are fair, factual and valid.
8. MIDAS Group will ensure that all stakeholders have adequate information about the operations and functions of which MIDAS Group is involved made available to them in an honest and transparent manner through information on our LMS, Website, Member Organisation Contracts, Learner Handbooks etc

9. MIDAS Group commit to our quality assurance procedures which include explicit criteria and procedures for the recruitment and engagement of external, independent, national and international experts.
10. Quality assurance procedures in our governance section include the criteria to be met when recruiting educational and quality standards panel members, external authenticators, national and international subject matter experts.
11. All data with member orgs will be documented in an open and honest and transparent manner and made available to the Quality Committee and for review.
12. MIDAS Group will be the legal entity that learners can hold responsible for any deficiencies in the provision of education and training.